Alumnae Gathering Report

2nd March 2021

Alumnae gathering were an accumulation of alumnae from diverse background and was blessing for the students and faculty looking at your current position and working status. More importantly, the love and affection you showed to our call from the alumnae association was remarkable and you all made the event full of love, affection and gratitude filled different colors.

The objective of alumnae association is to cultivate a spirit of loyalty and to promote the general welfare of the parent organization. This association exists to support the goals of the parent organization, to strengthen the ties between alumnae, society and the parent organization as well as the passed out students should contribute in quantitative and qualitative up gradation of the institute.

The college alumnae association actively functioning and making its contribution in overall development of the college. This year, an online alumnae gathering was held on 2nd March, 2021 at 11:00 am. In this gathering 78 alumnae were participated on Zoom app and 217 through You Tube Live streaming.

Dr. R. S. Endait in her welcome address extended her warm welcome to the alumnae and guest and extended her sincere thanks to all alumnae who had attend the online meet against the call/messages given from the alumnae association. She expressed her deep gratitude for all for being a part of alumnae gathering.

President of alumnae association Smt. Varsha Shete, Vice presidents of alumnae association Smt. Vidya Tanwar and Smt. Priyanka Chikhale express their opinion about current status of college and assured all kinds of help, support and cooperation for the betterment of the students and institute as whole.

Prin. Dr. M. T. Sarode, in his address updated the Alumnae about the college performance and proactive measures taken in the recent past in interest of the students and welfare of the faculty. He opined about the need for interaction and involvement of the alumnae in departmental strategic plans and overall development of the college.

Alumnae have made some valuable suggestions through their talk as computer facilities should be provided to the hostel students, library facilities should be provided to alumnae for their higher studies, to allow alumnae to organize personality development program for the current students, campus interviews should be organized by the college, start master program as well as organize industrial visits for PG students. It is suggested that alumnae should donate a book to the library on their birthdays, according to their free-will.

Alumnae also give their feedback on the online gathering and appreciated that the program was organized in a planned manner; it was outstanding program and felt very happy. They also realize that in COVID situation also college is with them. They also give some suggestions in the feedback, as college have digital notice board, organize intercollege competitions, introduce language translator course as well as start short term course in foreign languages.

Thus, through their valuable suggestions, alumnae have shown their loyalty, love and responsibilities towards the parent organization and the present students. The college alumnae committee and each and every teacher of the college is always remaining support system to the alumnae. Thus our college alumnae are making their valuable input in overall college development.

The event was stimulating and enjoyable and simultaneously profitable as all members shared their views and good numbers of new ideas, information and insights came up. The alumni association sincerely expressed its gratitude to the honorable Principal Dr. M.T. Sarode for his guidance and support to make this event a grand success.
