Report of the Workshop

'Teacher in You'

A good teacher is the master of simplification. The innovative teaching methods will uplift the performance of the individual teacher. The student centric methods can enable students to enjoy the teaching- learning process.

Prof. Avinash Dandawate, Associate Professor at G.H. Raisoni Career Foundation, Chas, Dist. Ahmednagar has conducted a workshop on 3rd February, 2017. He has conducted a brain storming session for the teachers. He stressed that the leadership qualities in a teacher can inspire his students and promote their skills. The assessment techniques are helpful to trace the progress of the students. He has also acquainted with the Bloom's Taxonomy.

Prin. Dr. B.K. Karale was in the chair. He also pointed out the need of updates and use of ICT in teaching- learning process.
